A NEW BOOK JUST RELEASED BY Palmetto Publishers

FOOTPRINT is a well-illustrated, nonfiction book, that provides an historical account of Bayville's waterfront history. It begins with information on our Native Americans, who lived on the banks of the Toms River, hundreds of years before Colonists arrived and violently altered their lifestyle. The book focuses on the Swiss Cottage Estate, (which later became the Webster Estate) that was built in 1871, by John B. Mott, on a section of riverfront that was sold by Captain Caleb Grant. Some of the estate's paranormal activities are also included. The text lays out a very interesting and colorful historical timeline of events, and the different families who occupied the estate, and its surrounding area. It also reveals the sorted history of the Swiss Estate that has been hidden for over 120 years by false rumors. It ends with today, and the author's personal reflection of living on the Toms River.
